PREFACE

The following record of the Starbird family pertains largely to Thomas Starboard of Dover, N. H. and his descendants. He appears to have been the first of the family in America, from whom all the others of that name have descended. Unverified records throw some doubt on this, and indicate the possibility that there may have been other immigrants of the name, or that Thomas Starboard of Dover may have been of the second generation.

The list is too long to record here, but to those who have so kindly given their time and efforts in collecting data for this record over the twenty years of its preparation I wish to express my grateful appreciation. Without their generous help its compilation would have been impossible.

The record is necessarily incomplete, for very little has ever been written of the families of this name. The most of the record has been compiled from isolated data found from time to time, and from information kindly furnished by those of that name now living, or who have passed on since the record was started. Even in what has been recorded, there are many gaps, some errors in dates and doubtless other errors, for the data is often conflicting.

Someone else may be able to make the record more complete, and if so, perhaps this much may be of assistance.

STARBIRD FAMILY

No certain data is available as to the origin of this family in America, but all the lines that have been traced, lead to Thomas Starboard of Dover, N. H. The tradition appears to be that he came from Wales. No positive proof of this has been found, or of the date of his arrival in America.

* * * *

Some have tried to link Thomas Starboard with the Reverend Edward Starbuck, who came from Derbyshire, England about 1640 and settled in Dover, N. H., and who in 1659, moved to Nantucket, Mass. with most of his family. Nothing has been found to support this claim, except the following:—

* * * *

The "Genealogy of the Starbird Family—Isaac Starbird, Ancestors and Descendants.—by the I. S. Starbird Family Association," states that it was taken with few alterations, from the Boston Records.

"Early History of the Starbird Family."

"Edward Starbird, or Starbuck, as he was more commonly known, came from Derbyshire, England about 1640 and settled in Dover, N. H. He was born in England in 1604. On August 30, 1643 he was granted forty acres of land on each side of Fresh River at Cocheco, above John Baker's farm at the little brook. He had also a grant of marsh land that year. In 1650 he was granted a mill privilege at the second falls in partnership with Thomas Wiggins, and also the timber necessary to run the mill. He was representative to the General Court in 1643–46. He was an elder in the church until he became a Baptist about 1659, the year when he went off with others of his faith to seek a new home. He set sail in an open boat and finally landed at Nantucket, at a place called Natical, later Cambridge. He located there in 1660 and returned to Dover for his children. His children were grown up. Sarah and Abigail were married and remained in Dover. His wife Katherine, and children Nathaniel, Jethro, and Dorcas went with him to Nantucket, which has ever since been known as the home of the Starbuck family. Starbuck was prosecuted for embracing the Baptist faith at Dover. After a few years he became a Quaker. He died June 12, 1690. He married Katherine Reynolds, said to be a native of Wales. Children:—1. Nathaniel, born in England in 1636; sold his estates in Dover in 1661 and removed where his father had gone to Nantucket, where his descendants have been numerous. 2. Jethro, mentioned below; 3. Sarah; 4. Abigail; 5. Esther; 6. Dorcas, who removed to Nantucket and married William Gayer.

(II) Jethro Starbird, son of Edward Starbird, was born in England, probably about 1638. He went to Nantucket with his father, and was killed soon afterwards. The names of the children of Thomas Starbird (3) lead us to believe that this Jethro was his father. Very little is known about Jethro.

(III) Thomas Starbird, or Starboard, as the name is also spelled in the Maine records, was doubtless the grandson of the immigrant Edward, and probably the son of Jethro. He was born about 1660. It is likely that when his father was killed, the child or children of Jethro remained in Dover, and were brought up by one of the aunts, the father's sisters. He married in Dover, Abigail Damm, daughter of John Damm, Jan. 4, 1687 or 1688. The descendants of her family still vary the spelling of the name. Some have it Dam, others Dame. Abigail, widow, was baptised at Dover, August 22, 1740. Children of Thomas and Abigail Starbird:—1. Jethro, named for his grandfather, born August 28, 1689. 2. Thomas, born October 19, 1691, named for his father and mentioned below. 3. Agnes, born Oct. 4, 1693. 4. Abigail, born Sept. 29, 1695. 5. Elizabeth, born Feb. 15, 1699. 6. John, born March 10, 1701, seems to have been the John of Falmouth (Portland.). 7. Samuel, born April 22, 1704, mentioned below.

(IV) Thomas Starbird Jr., son of Thomas Starbird (3) was born at Dover, Oct. 19, 1691. Married Margaret ——. Probably was baptised by Rev. Jonathan Cushing August 25, 1723 at Dover. Children, all born at Dover:—1. Thomas. Named for father and grandfather, born March 23, 1713 or 1714. 2. Nathaniel, born April 27, 1716, also an old family name. 3. Jethro, born June 29, 1718. 4. Hannah, born Jan. 31, 1719, or 1720. John, born Nov. 16, 1721. (John and Sarah both baptised Dec. 13, 1741. They had children, John, Abigail, Hannah and Sarah, baptised October 1742, probably older than this John). 6. Samuel, born, Nov. 16, 1723. 7. Margaret, born May 31, 1725.

(V) Samuel Starbird, son of Thomas Starbird (3) was born in Dover April 22, 1704. Married Rebekah. He and his wife were baptised in the Dover church April 11, 1742. Children:—1. Elizabeth, born at Dover July 4, 1725. 2. Samuel, born May 29, 1727. 3. Richard, mentioned below. 4. John, settled at Brunswick, Me. on Lot 50."

The above record appears to be identical with a record found in Vol. II, "Genealogical and Personal Memoirs relating to the families of Middlesex County, Mass." by William Richard Cutter, A. M., from which it was undoubtedly taken.

Much of it is so different from the writer's conclusions that it has been disregarded.

The following was received October 25, 1939 from the Chief Librarian of the Reference Division, The Public Library of the City of Boston.

"We regret that we have been unable to find the place and date of birth of Jethro Starbuck. He died at Nantucket May 27, 1663, according to the 'Vital Records of Nantucket. . . .' His birth is also recorded here but the date is not given. There is a note accompanying the reference in the 'Vital Records' stating that some of these births did not occur in Nantucket. It is probable that Jethro was born in Dover, N. H. as his father did not leave there until 1660, according to the New England Historic Genealogical Register, vol. 8, p. 68, and Jethro is named among the children who went with him when he moved.

According to the 'Early Settlers of Nantucket,' by Lydia S. Hinchman and 'The History of Nantucket,' by Alexander Starbuck, Jethro was run over by a cart at the age of twelve. No authority for his age is given, however, and the date of his death is the only one of which we can be certain."

The following is said to appear in an old bible which belonged to John Starbird of Paris, Maine, who was born October 3, 1767, and who married in New Gloucester, Maine, March 26, 1796, Sally Tobey, daughter of Richard and Jemima (Haskell) Tobey.

"1797—being a record of the family of John Starbird who came from Wales with the family of his older brother (name illegible) in the year 1653 and settled near Gloucester, Mass.

In the year of our Lord 1700, John Starbird received a grant of land from the English Government in Maine, which then belonged to Massachusetts. For more than two years they looked for the location, and when found it was claimed by early French settlers, which caused much strife.

Record of John Starbird and family, 3rd:—
John Starbird, born Oct. 3, 1767" etc.

Although it has been impossible to verify the above, or to trace the ancestry of John Starbird of Paris, Me., it would seem that the entry would hardly have been made in the bible without some basis of fact, and the most of the early settlers of New Gloucester, Me. are said to have come from Gloucester, Mass. A number of John Starbirds served in the Revolution, and thus far it has been impossible to establish all of them as descendants of Thomas Starboard of Dover, although all of them could have been.

The location of the land in Maine is not stated. So far as known there were few if any early French settlements west of the Kennebec River, and not many much west of the Penobscot. No Starbird settlers before 1750 have been found east of Brunswick or Harpswell.

The first seven children were born at Dover, N. H. The last six were baptised at Scarboro, Me. where the family was then living.

There also appears to have been a daughter Rhoda, who married 11 April 1744, Robert Carll, said to have been a brother of the first Timothy. They settled in Saco, Me. and had a numerous family. He died Oct. 5, 1778.

The following records also appear to pertain to this Family:

Margaret and Thomas Starbird united with Scarboro Church Dec. 30, 1733.

Thomas Starbird and Margaret, his wife, dismissed to the Second Church of Scarboro, now Dunstan.

Sept. 8, 1745, Thomas Starbird and Margaret joined the Second Church of Scarboro, now Dunstan.

"Nathaniel Starbird, or as the records have it, Starboard, settled on Lot 28 which had been drawn to Robert Hooper, one of the grantees. Nothing is known of Mr. Starbird save the bare record of his settlement here in 1745, and that he had a house on the lot with nine acres cleared at that date. He appears to have removed from the town at the opening of the Indian War and to have served in Capt. George Berry's Company at Falmouth. He probably did not return to Windham and was recorded as deceased before 1759." (History of Windham.)

Buried Nov. 27, 1747, Samuel Starbird. (Record Church of Scarboro.) This Samuel, however, may have been a son of Thomas[3], as in the account of his death, only the name of the father was given.

Mrs. Margaret Starbird married Dec. 11, 1747, Axel Roberts. (Me.H.G.R. 3–85.)

Children:

i. Elizabeth; b. ——.

15 ii. Richard; b. about 1730; m. Anna Woodside.

16 iii. John; b. ——.

iv. Abigail; b. ——.

v. Hannah; b. ——.

vi. Sarah; b. ——; m. about 1758, Wm. Morgridge.

17 vii. Moses; b. 9 July 1743 at Dover, N. H.

Sarah Starbird, widow, in Newcastle, Me. in 1765. (Gen. History of Maine and New Hampshire, Part 5.)

Sarah who married William Morgridge, as a widow was living in Harpswell, Me. in 1799. She is said to have had children, Prudence, Thomas, Betsey and Charles.

Baptised at Dover, N. H. 13 Dec. 1741, John Starbird and Sarah his wife. (N.E.H.G.R. 29–269.)

"John, Abigail, Hannah and Sarah baptised at Dover, N. H. 17 Oct. 1742." (N.E.H.G.R. 30–457.)

As four of the children were baptised at Dover, N. H. in 1742, and Moses was born in Dover in 1743, John probably removed to Maine after the latter date; possibly not until 1749.

The will of John Starbird, probated at Brunswick, Maine, Oct. 1, 1753, gives the names of all the above children. Hannah and Sarah were evidently not of age at the time the will was drawn on June 20, 1753, as their bequests were to be paid when they became of age.

John Starbird is buried in the old cemetery at Brunswick, Me. He early emigrated to Harpswell and had a good farm, and was a highly esteemed citizen. Later he moved to Brunswick and in 1752 he was living on Lot. No. 50.

"John Drew, selectman of Dover in 1701, was a sergeant in the Militia. He married first, about 1675, Sarah, daughter of Darby Field.

Children:

i. Sarah; b. ——; m. 16 Jan. 1707, John Field.

ii. Elizabeth; b. ——; m. Love Roberts of Dover.

He married, second, 31 March 1720, Rebecca Cook, although they had children before that date and there was trouble in court about it. He died at Back River, Dover, 23 Oct. 1723, age 73. His widow, Rebecca, married in 1724, Samuel Starbird of Dover." (History of Dover, Vol. 2, p. 139.)

For further information, see New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 6, p. 37.

Unless there is another line of Starbirds other than that of Thomas[1] of Dover, N. H., the following must have been of the family of Samuel[2] above:—

19 "Lieut. John Starbird died Oct. 17, 1811, aged 87 years and 8 months, a soldier in the French and Indian Wars."

The age of Lieut. John Starbird at death would put his date of birth as Feb. 1724. This was only four months after the death of John Drew. It is possible that he was a son of John Drew and Rebekah, and was brought up under the name of Starbird, as Rebekah married Samuel Starbird in 1724, the year he was apparently born, or his age given at death may have been incorrect.

History of Durham, N. H. Vol. I.

20 Ensign John Starbird, b. 7 Feb. 1755 was a son of Lieut. John Starbird who died Oct. 17, 1811, aged 87 years and 8 months, a soldier in the French and Indian Wars.

He enlisted as a corporal in Captain Winborn Adams' Co. in 1775. He appears as an ensign in Capt. Caleb Hodgdon's Co. Col. Pierce Long's Reg't 25 Sept. 1776. His company was stationed at Portsmouth and marched to Ticonderoga in 1777. After the war he was made lieutenant and was a pensioner. He lived not far from the old railroad station and was a shoemaker. He died 17 Oct. 1841 and is buried in the village cemetery without a headstone. His wife Rebecca died 9 Feb. 1825, aged 68 years.

Children:

21 i. Samuel; b. 1781; d. 15 Nov. 1825, age 44 yrs. He was a sea captain in the merchant service.

ii. Sally; b. ——; m. 1810, Stephen Hodgdon.

iii. Lois; b. ——; m. 1st, Calvin Pickering. 2nd, —— Hazen. 3rd, Levi Cram.

22 iv. Stephen; b. 1788; d. 15 Dec. 1869, aged 81 yrs. 8 mos.; m. 1st, 18 Jan. 1818, Tamson Nute, who died 24 Feb. 1848. m. 2nd, Caroline (Teague) Davis, widow of Daniel Davis, about 1850. (p. 112.)

23 v. John; b. ——; m. 23 Dec. 1836?, Olive, daughter of Edward Winslow Emerson.

All sons took part in the War of 1812; Stephen on the Canadian frontier, and John and Samuel in the privateer service. (p. 148.)

John Starboard, age 21, of Durham, occupation "Husbandman," from list of Capt. Winborn Adams' Co. 2 June 1775, regiment commanded by Col. Enoch Poor. Term of service of this regiment to expire in December of same year. Voted to raise same 20 May 1775. Stationed on seacoast from Odiorne's Point to the Merrimack River, also Cambridge. (p. 123.)

Another roll shows John Stirbourd corporal. (p. 125.)

Marriages recorded by Rev. Federal Burt. (p. 382.)

Jan. 18, 1818, Stephen Starbird to Miss Tamson Nute.

Deaths recorded by Rev. Federal Burt.

Feb. 9, 1825, Mrs. Rebekah Starbird, wife of John Starbird, aged 66. (p. 396.)

Nov. 15, 1825, Captain Samuel Starbird, aged 44. (p. 397.)

Durham soldiers in the Civil War: (p. 166.)

James W. Starbird, son of John and Olive (Emerson) Starbird, enlisted 30 Oct. 1861, age 31 years, Co. "H" 6th N. H. Regt. for 3 years. Discharged for disability 27 Nov. 1862 at Washington, D. C.

Town records say had wife Angeline P. and children:

Mary 8
Martha 6
George 1

The War of 1812 called but few soldiers from Durham and led to the building of two privateers. Among Durham names that of Stephen Starbird appears in Capt. Charles E. Tobey's Co. (p. 152.)

History of Durham, N. H. Vol. II.

Daniel Davis of Lee, born 16 Nov. 1802, married 30 March 1826, Caroline Teague. She married second, Stephen Starbird. (p. 112.)

Muster Roll of Timothy Barrows' Co. in a regiment raised for defense of Frontiers on and adjacent to Conn. River and commanded by Colonel Timothy Bedel.—State Papers of N. H. by Hammond, Vol. XV.—Rev. Rolls Vol. 2. Appointed Sergeant April 7th, Richard Starboard. 1st April 1779.

Pay roll of Capt. McDuffee's Co., Simeon Starboard. Date of entry Sept. 8, 1777. Oct. 19, time in service 1.12. Amt. wages 6.6. Travel to Bennington at 3 per mile from New Windsor, 316 miles at 2d-2.76 etc. Deserted Oct. 19, 1777.

Stephen Starboard deserted Oct. 20, 1777. Enlisted Sept. 8, 1777 etc. (p. 299.)

Olive Taylor married John Starbird 23 Dec. 1836. Had son James Starbird who married Angeline. He died a soldier in the Union Army, and she married second, Warren F. Lovejoy. (p. 188.)

Note:—There are several discrepancies in the records of John Starbird and his son James that it has been impossible to reconcile. John is given in one place as marrying Olive Emerson on Dec. 23, 1836, and in another place he is given as marrying Olive Taylor on the same date. The age of James when he enlisted on Oct. 30, 1861 is given as 31 years. It seems probable that he married Olive Emerson some time before Dec. 23, 1836 and he might have married Olive Taylor on that date.

As 24 Stephen and 25 Simeon Starbird both deserted from Ticonderoga only a day apart, it appears likely that they were brothers. As no Starbird family is given in the records of Durham except Lieut. John, his son Ensign John and Richard, Simeon and Stephen, the last four may all have been sons of Lieut. John.

There is a record of a Samuel Starbird as a resident of Bowdoin, Me. in 1750 and again in 1766. Some writers have considered him to have been Samuel^2, but as Samuel^2 was apparently still in Dover in 1761, and there were many Starbirds in and around Dover, it seems probable that most, if not all of this family remained in New Hampshire until after those dates. It seems more probable that the Samuel in Bowdoin was the son of Thomas[2], who was born Nov. 16, 1723.

25 STARBIRD, SIMEON[1] Probably brother of 24 Stephen, and perhaps brother of 20 Ensign John Starbird of Durham, N. H.
b. ——. Lived in Barrington, N. H.
m. ——.
d. ——.

Children: List probably incomplete.

26 i. Simeon Jr.; b. ——. Said to have gone west.

27 ii. John; b. March 1771; d. 11 Oct. 1853, age 82 yrs. and 7 mos.

iii. Hannah; b. ——; d. ——; m. Daniel Ham.

28 iv. Samuel; b. 1785; d. 26 Jan. 1854 at Hartland, Me. age 68 yrs. and 4 mos.

29 v. Nathaniel; b. 12 April 1793; d. 7 April 1875, age 82 yrs.

Above from records of North Hartland cemetery and from descendants.

There apparently were other children, as the 1790 Census gives males under 16, two; females six.

Simeon Starbird appears as a private on a muster and pay roll of the officers and soldiers raised, mustered and paid by Stephen Evans in the Second Regiment in the State of New Hampshire to join the Continental Army in New York, per order dated Sept. 16, 1776; Captain Smith Emerson's Company; advance wage and bounty L6.0.0., billeting L2.3.4., total L8.3.4. (New Hampshire Revolutionary Rolls, Vol. 1, p. 408.)

Also as a private on a pay roll of Captain Daniel McDuffie's Company, Colonel Stephen Evans' Regiment, which marched from the State of New Hampshire and joined the Northern Continental Army at Saratoga in September 1777. Enlisted Sept. 8, 1777; deserted Oct. 19, 1777. (New Hampshire Revolutionary Rolls, Vol. II, p. 299.)

It appears probable that Simeon Starbird was a grandson of Samuel Starbird who married Rebecca (Cook) Drew, son of Thomas Starboard of Dover, N. H. who married Abigail Damm, or possibly son of Lieut. John Starbird.

Thomas Starboard, apparently the first of the name in America, had four sons; Jethro, Thomas, John and Samuel. Jethro appears to have died young. Thomas moved to Scarboro, Maine, and John to Harpswell, Maine, while Samuel remained in Dover, N. H. Barrington, N. H. adjoins Dover.

Hartland, Me. Census of 1850 gives Starbird, Abigail, age 60, born in N. H. As she was evidently not the wife of John, Samuel or Nathaniel, and as she was born in N. H. she may have been another sister.

Three sons and a daughter of Simeon Starbird of Barrington, N. H. which adjoins Dover, John, Nathaniel, Samuel and Hannah, and possibly another daughter Abigail, moved to Hartland, Maine about 1800. John was born in March 1771. There was a son older than John which would place the date of birth of Simeon before 1750.

b. ——; baptised 8 May 1743. (Me.H.G.R. 6–335.)

MAY 21, 1943

Information just received proves beyond question that JOHN STARBIRD of Paris, Maine, (No. 199, page 83) was the son of STARBIRD, JETHRO (No. 8, page 36) and Annah Berry. He was baptised 29 May 1768.

The above necessitates the following changes:

On page 5, the record said to have been in the old bible of John Starbird of Paris, Maine, is incorrect and valueless.

On page 36, John, baptised 29 May 1768 should appear as the VIII child of Jethro[3] Starbird and Annah Berry.

On page 37, all of the item following John, the first child of Jethro[4] Starbird, beginning with "baptised 29 May 1768" should be stricken out. The name John, however, should remain as there was a John in this family.

m. 16 Sept. 1764, Hannah Libby of Scarborough. (Record Church of Scarborough.)

95 ii. Robert.

Probably others.

The following appear to pertain to Jethro Starbird and his descendants, although some may have been descendants of Solomon who lived in Auburn, Me. only a few miles from Gray and had a large family, and some possibly may have been descendants of Moses Starbird of Raymondtown, Me.

#As two Johns are recorded in this family, it seems probable that one is an error. As the record of the first is more complete, it would seem that the error is in the 2nd John, although there are instances where the first names in a family have been duplicated, even when both were living, but the middle name was different.

John Starbird administered the estate of Jonathan Williams, husband of his second wife. (See Lincoln County Wills.)

John Starbird lived on a farm in Fairfield, Maine, about seven miles north of the city of that name. The farm is now included in the "Good Will Farm," a home and school for deserving girls and boys. The school was established in 1879 by George W. Hinckley who was still president of the school in 1941 at the age of 88. The Starbird house, known as the "Tavern" is in about the middle of Good Will Farm, which extends for five or six miles along the west bank of the Kenebec River. It was still standing and in good condition in 1941 and was occupied by Mr. Hinckley as his residence.

John Starbird, his wife and two children who died young are buried in the small cemetery a few yards west of the house.

He was licensed as an innkeeper in 1835 as shown by the following:

His wife, Hannah E. Judkins, served as one of Miss Dix's regular enlisted U. S. Army nurses the last year of the war.

After the war they went to Tarrytown, N. Y. where he was a teacher in D. P. Rowe's Boys School. He afterwards was professor of bookkeeping and commercial law at Alonzo Flack's College and Academy, having been admitted to the bar in Albany, N. Y. in May 1868. He later went west and drifted into engineering, a taste for which he had developed during the war. He planned and built the railroad from Omaha to Plattsmouth, Neb.

His two sons graduated from the Colorado School of Mines at Golden, Colo. as mining engineers and then went to California where they leased the Rose Mine near Victorville, Calif. They have both been residents of Los Angeles, Calif. since 1904.

Silas Bates Starbird lived on the Starbird farm at Fairfield, Maine that had belonged to his father, and all his children were born in the old "Starbird Tavern."

He was spoken of as the leading business man in that section, and as public spirited, energetic and resourceful. He did a very large business in sheep; raising them, purchasing them from others and marketing them. He also made occasional trips to Boston, and returned with a string of horses which he would dispose of to the farmers in that section. The barn which stood on the farm was 100 feet long, and was apparently planned both for sheep raising and for the wool industry, as there were large spaces for storing wool, which he purchased from neighboring farmers.

He evidently met with financial misfortunes in Fairfield, and moved to California and died there.

His wife, Mary Adelaide (Totman) Starbird, is said to have been a lineal descendant of Francis Cooke, the Mayflower pilgrim as follows:—Francis Cooke who married Esler ——, Jane Cooke who in 1623 married Experience Mitchell, Sarah Mitchell who married John Hayward, Joe Hayward who married Mehitable Dunham, Joanna Dunham who married David Snow, Rhoda Snow who married Thos? Totman, Mary Adelaide Totman who married Silas Bates Starbird.

"Moses Starbird, the Revolutionary soldier who came to Raymond soon after the Revolution closed and built his house on the lowlands near where Tenney's River flows into Panther's Pond, the uplands being covered then, I suppose, with the dense original forest, and I know not much of Moses Starbird. I know his Revolutionary career. Massachusetts records show him to have been a member of the Continental Army from March 1, 1777 to March 1, 1780, and that his name appears on a release dated Camp Valley Forge, Feb. 5, 1778 with Washington. When the war was over he came to Raymond to live. His name appears on the list of thirty settlers who received deeds on March 29, 1774.

His daughter Martha married Nathaniel Symonds, and resided in Denmark."

In 1835 Isaac Starbird purchased the store of Lorenzo Bailey at Litchfield Corners, Me., and here carried on a prosperous business until his death. He was the leading merchant of Litchfield Corners for many years, and for some time was successfully engaged in the manufacture of potash, having a large ashery. From 1861 to 1873 he was postmaster of the town, and for four years he served as selectman.

The Dennett family, it is said, went to England with William the Conqueror (traditionally a relative) and received large estates, principally in Woodmancot, Essex County, where representatives of the family still reside. The emigrant ancestor was Alexander Dennett who came to America in 1670 and settled in New Castle, N. H. where his death occurred in 1689 at the age of seventy years. His son, Alexander Jr., born in 1672 was the father of Ebenezer Dennett who was born in 1700. Ebenezer Dennett Jr. born Oct. 22, 1721, son of Ebenezer, was a pioneer of Berwick, Me., where he cleared a homestead from the dense wilderness. Moses Dennett, son of Ebenezer Jr. and father of Sarah Hanscomb Dennett, settled in Bowdoin, Me., where for many years he was a citizen of prominence. He was a representative to the General Court in Boston, when the District of Maine was a part of Massachusetts.

MAY 21, 1943

Information just received proves beyond question that JOHN STARBIRD of Paris, Maine, (No. 199, page 83) was the son of STARBIRD, JETHRO (No. 8, page 36) and Annah Berry. He was baptised 29 May 1768.

The above necessitates the following changes:

On page 5, the record said to have been in the old bible of John Starbird of Paris, Maine, is incorrect and valueless.

On page 36, John, baptised 29 May 1768 should appear as the VIII child of Jethro[3] Starbird and Annah Berry.

On page 37, all of the item following John, the first child of Jethro[4] Starbird, beginning with "baptised 29 May 1768" should be stricken out. The name John, however, should remain as there was a John in this family.

199 STARBIRD, JOHN of Paris, Maine.

b. 3 Oct. 1767. Possibly son of 8 Jethro[3] (Thomas[2], Thomas[1] or of 90 Jethro[4].) Or perhaps of 7 Moses[3] (John[2], Thomas[1].)

xii. Betsy; b. 9 April 1818; m. Leonard Cole and had children:

Eliza, Jim, George, Lovina, Delfina, Sarah and Silas.

John Starbird was in Woodstock, Me. at the time that town was incorporated. In 1825 his farm was set off to Paris. A petition dated 1802 shows he was in Paris at that time as his name appears on a petition with reference to separation of town. (Pages 106 and 110 of History of Paris, Maine.)

John Starbird and his wife are both buried, without stones, in a small cemetery in South Woodstock, Me.

Above records from History of Paris, Me. p. 728, and from descendants.

An old family bible record appears under the record of his son Levi. This bible gives date of death of Sally (Tobey) Starbird as Sept. 18, 1855, and the birth of John Jr. as June 11, 1800.

To date it has been impossible to definitely trace the ancestry of this John Starbird of Paris, Me. As previously stated, he might have been a son of Jethro[3], Jethro[4], or of Moses[3].

John Starbird was born Oct. 3, 1767, and married in New Gloucester in 1796. Jethro (probably Jethro[4]) had a son John baptised May 27, 1768. Jethro[4] received land in New Gloucester in 1768.

Moses[3], lived in Raymond, Maine. Winfield S. Starbird, grandson of this John, says that the father of his grandfather was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, but does not remember his name. Moses[3] was a soldier in the Revolution. Ida (Starbird) Dudley, sister of Winfield S. says that her grandfather had a brother who lived in or near Litchfield, Me. and another who lived near Portland, Me., but does not remember the names of either. Moses[4] son of Moses[3] married Lucy Chase of Bowdoin, Me., and their son Isaac Starbird, who married Sarah Hanscomb Dennett, lived practically all his life at Litchfield, Me. Apparently other sons of Moses[3] remained in the vicinity of Portland, Me.

Moses[3] would also satisfy some of the old bible record, except the date of arrival in America, and the date the grant of land in Maine was received from the English Government.

John Starbird, father of Moses[3], (who had an older brother Thomas) went from Dover, N. H. to Harpswell, Me. between 1742 and 1750, and if John of Paris, Me. was the son of Moses he would have been third in line from John of Harpswell.

Have been unable to learn whether or not there were any early French settlers in Harpswell, Me.

Above from records of descendants.

Most of the children of Richard and Levi Starbird changed the spelling of the name to Starbard, and their descendants continue to spell it that way.

As mentioned on Page 5 the following appears in an old bible that belonged to Levi's father, and which is said to be now in the hands of one of the descendants of Levi.

"1797—Being a record of the family of John Starbard who came from Wales with the family of his older brother, (name illegible) in the year 1653 and settled near Gloucester, Mass.

In the year of our Lord 1700, John Starbard received a grant of land from the English Government in Maine, which then belonged to Massachusetts. For more than two years they looked for the location, and when found it was claimed by early French settlers, which caused much strife."

"Record of John Starbard and family; 3rd.

John Starbard, born Oct. 3, 1767," etc.

While the above may have some basis of fact, nothing has been found to substantiate it, and there is no record of any Starbird or Starbard either in Gloucester, Mass., or in any of the surrounding towns.

So far as any other records show, John Starbird never spelled his name Starbard, and if a John Starbird or Starbard came to America in 1653 even as a small boy, John Starbird, born Oct. 3, 1767 would probably have been more than the third generation, and every Starbird that can be definitely traced goes back to Thomas Starboard of Dover, N. H. who married Abigail Damm.

John Starbird was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. After the war he went to Trenton, N. J. and taught school. Later he moved to Easton, Pa. and finally settled in Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pa.

While there is no John Starbird listed under the children of Richard[3] Starbird who married Anna Woodside, other reports of the family give a son John, and also a son Samuel, baptised June 25, 1758.

There seems to have been no other Starbird family in Brunswick that could have had a son John born 25 March 1754, and there are four or five years between the first two children of Richard listed: Ann, born in 1751 and William baptised in infancy 1 June 1756.

"Maine at Valley Forge" gives as soldiers there in 1777, John and Samuel Starbird of Brunswick, Me.

Here he made his home the rest of his life. In 1851 he erected a sawmill in the Northeastern part of the township, with no help except that of his family. He was made deacon Nov. 23, 1844, continuing until Dec. 15, 1849 when at his request, Sumner Robinson was appointed to succeed him. Mr. Starbird was a man of good sense, habits and deportment.

From Milton A. Frost of Caribou, Me. July 29, 1935.

"Regard to Watson Starbird, can only tell you that I was very young when I knew him, and I cannot tell you what town he lived in before coming to Caribou. He was a farmer and he married Angeline Washburn. She lived before coming to Caribou near Hartford, Maine. They raised a family of three children, two girls and one son, Eugene W. I think he was the oldest. Ella, the oldest girl married Elmer I. Frost, and the other girl, Emma, married Loren L. Frost. They all moved to California and all have since died. Eugene W. Starbird married Eliza Long of Caribou. They had one child, a girl, now living in California. Eugene W. went to Chicken, Alaska and in October 1931 was burned in his cabin on one of his gold claims. He was past 70 and pretty feeble. He was living alone. That branch of the Starbird family are all dead."
